

Home Staging Special

Selling your home in a competitive real estate market can be a real challenge. Many brokers are recommending home staging as a viable option to help your house stand out. If your broker is using terms such as “de-clutter” or “create more spacious areas,” it is time to call Gallo Moving.

Our Home Staging Special takes the “work” out of staging and clearing your house. With prices starting at just $499, this is a great opportunity to effectively market your home and set yourself apart from the rest.
